UM FINE ARTS TEAM WILL GIVE LEWISTOWN PROGRAMS

MISSOULA--

Three members of the School of Fine Arts at the University of Montana will present workshops and clinics in Lewistown schools and at the Lewistown Art Center Thursday and Friday, April 3 and 4.

Fine Arts Dean Robert Kiley will conduct workshops for townspeople interested in community theater and for high school drama students.

Maxine Blackmer, associate professor of art, will give a jewelry workshop at the center and will also exhibit jewelry that she has designed and crafted.

Donald A. Carey, conductor of the University Choir and a member of the UM music education faculty, will present choral clinics for students and will meet with music teachers.
